ADOT Kids know that littering is rude and bad for the environment. “Litterbug” is the nickname frequently earned by those seen tossing, dropping and stuffing cigarette butts and fast food wrappers anywhere but where they belong—in a proper trash receptacle.

The trash talk name decoder game is made up of trash-related words paired with some new and creative fun ones. Try it with family and friends who won't mind a little trash talk!

What is your litterbug name? Write it in the space below.
