

Industry will be included at all levels as appropriate for input and discussion to ensure timely and acceptable issue resolution. Some issues may be escalated for internal resolution between groups utilizing only the ADOT portion of the escalation process. Issues should escalated as soon as practical when it is clear that the team has reached an impasse.