

Appendix D: Land Ownership

Land ownership is important for determining whether additional coordination is needed ahead of vegetation management activities. See the District-specific posters on the Roadside Resources webpage for more detailed land ownership information. Contact Roadside Resources to receive a poster if your office does not have one available.

