Web Translation Resource List

Name	Description	Contact Pages
Microsoft Translator	Translator, part of Azure Cognitive Services, is a cloud-based machine translation service supporting more than 70 languages. Translator can be used to build applications, websites, tools, or any solution requiring multi-language support. Built for business, Translator is a proven, customizable, and scalable technology for machine translation. Translator technology powers translation features across Microsoft products, including Microsoft Translator apps for Android, iOS and Windows, Microsoft Office, Edge, SharePoint, Yammer, Visual Studio, Bing, and Skype. Simply integrate translation into web, desktop, or mobile applications, using industry standard REST technology, Translator provides a rich functionality set for any developer. Learn more about machine translation and how Translator works.	Microsoft Translator Contact Page Select the blue "Contact" tab on page to contact Microsoft Translator Team. Additionally, for support, click here to contact Microsoft Support Team.
Google Translation API	Translation API Basic instantly translates texts into more than one hundred languages for your website and apps.	Contact Sales Team Web Page Complete the contact form on the Google Contact Us Page regarding your business needs and a member of the team will be in contact with you.
Reverso Web Translator	Offers translation services Intranet and website with instant translation, translation of selected content and the ability to tailor the translate button and exclude specfic sections from being translated.	Reverso Web Translator Contact Page Complete the contact form on the Reverso Web Translator Contact Page to be connected to a member of the team.
Crowdin	Crowdin is a cloud-based solution that streamlines localization management for your team. It's the perfect place to effectively manage all of your multilingual content.	Click Here for Contact Webform Complete the contact form on the Crowdin Contact Webform to be connected to a member of the team.

Additional Resources	Description
LEP.gov	LEP.gov has resources and information to help expand nad improve language assistance services for individuals with limited English proficiency, in compliance with federal law.
Google Translate's Website Translator - available for non-commercial use	This Google blog article states that due to COVID-19, Google is opening up to Website Translator Widget to government, non-profit and or academic instution websites. To apply to start using the Translator Widget, please sign up here.
Wikipedia List of Comparison of Computer Assisted Translators	This wikipedia article consists of a list of some available website and software platforms for computer assisted translations.

This document is not intended as guidance, and it does not create new Limited English Proficieny requirements or represent a statement of ADOT policy or interpretation of existing requirements. It is intended as an aid to subrecipients of federal financial assistance in the development of language access systems. Subrecipients should tailor their policies and procedures to suit their circumstances. Please refer with your own web/technology team regarding compatibility.

Resource List last updated on 10/23/2020